Teacher Toolkit today!

It will be very practical in its focus, with ample opportunity for questions and discussion and sharing of ideas by participants.

It will be relevant both to Year 11 and 12 VCE English teachers, with an array of strategies and teaching approaches outlined covering all core areas of the extant course:

- studying and writing on single texts
- oral presentations
- analysing the ways in which argument and language intentionally persuade targeted audiences
- studying and writing on paired texts comparatively.

It will continually have an eye upon the essential skills required for success in the all-important final exam on 28 October. Participants should leave with many practical teaching and pedagogical ideas which can be readily implemented.
